

TRUTH TRACK

Going the Distance

Nick Garland, Leader

SESSION 3: SHARE

Look Back..

TRUTH can be known in the heart of man because God plants in us the desire to know Him.

TRUTH is experienced in the lives of men of God and is “fleshed out” in daily life decisions.

TRUTH is taught to others once it is ingrained in us.

Discussion Questions

1. In the course of your life, who or what had the most impact; Instilling truth in your character?
2. What is the greatest assault or trial that you face regularly that tempts you to compromise truth?
3. When was a time you were tested about being truthful and how did you do in response to that test?
4. When you seek to teach children and students that which is absolute truth from the LORD, what are your greatest challenges to being effective? What are the areas that your children (or grandchildren) most often struggle with living in truth?
5. Name a time when you were faithful in being truthful and you suffered as a result.
6. Name a time when you were truthful and you were praised and rewarded for it.

